Dear Dr. Hartland-Thunberg:

STAT Thank you for accepting the invitation to address the Career Trainee Development Course, the Agency's orientation course for junior professionals. The students in this class are spread evenly among the Agency's directorates. Per our agreement, the honorarium will be [] with an additional $10 for cab transportation to our building.

We have provisionally entitled your talk "The World Economy: Threat to Industrial Democracies."

We would appreciate it if in the course of your talk you would establish the link between the exposure of American banks in the third world and the threat to U.S. national security if third world countries default on their debts. Also, there is interest and a need among many of our Trainees for a definition of the role of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development in the third world.

Your presentation is scheduled for Friday, 27 September 1985, from 1015 - 1200 in Room 236 Chamber of Commerce Building. Someone from the staff will greet you at the second floor receptionist area when you arrive. Should you need parking, please let someone on our staff know.

STAT Sincerely,

Director
of
Training and Education
